

A Stitch In Time

1. Another suitable title for this story could be
 - Describing Canada's Flag
 - First Canadian Flags
 - The Making of A Flag for Canada
 - Canadian Prime Ministers
2. What flag flew for Canada until 1945?
 - The Red Ensign
 - The Maple Leaf
 - The Red Ensign and the Union Jack
 - The Union Jack
3. Why were the Red Ensign and the Union Jack called "temporary" flags?
 - No one could agree on a Canadian flag.
 - They were borrowed from Great Britain.
 - The Prime Ministers didn't like them.
 - A committee wanted them to be temporary.
4. In 1964, who decided that Canada should have its own flag?
 - Lester B. Pearson
 - The chairperson of a committee
 - William Lyon Mackenzie King
 - Joan O'Malley
5. The word prototype, in paragraphs 6 and 7, means
 - a model
 - a drawing
 - a committee decision
 - a temporary flag